We recently presented an elephant to a Mutt outside the State (Kumbhakonam) and I do not think it is right to refuse the request of a Mutt inside the State.

The Conservator states that he has no elephant for sale or any which he can spare. I think ~~we may ask him~~ he may be asked to spare one for the use of the Balehous Mutt. Free gift is inconvenient and I think the Mutt may be asked to pay half the price.

K. R. Srinivasanagar, Esq., M.A.,

First Member of Council to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, BANGALORE.

Sir,

I, the undersigned, Agent of Sri Jagadguru Ramabhapuri Veerasimhasana Peeta, Balehonnur, Kadur District, beg to submit under instructions of His Holiness Sri Swamigalu, the following representation, for gracious consideration of Your Honour.

There was an old elephant in the Mutt and it died only a week back owing to extreme oldage. The animal was ailing for some time past and in spite of best - efforts and great care taken, it did not survive. His Holiness Sri Swamigalu is contemplating to proceed on a prolonged tour in and outside the Mysore State shortly after the Rathotsava on the 26th instant and the want of an elephant for processional marches is very keenly felt. As the Mutt records are in great confusion, it cannot be said with absolute certainty whether a free gift of an elephant had been made on previous occasions.
Owing to the absence of a Swamigalu on the - Peeta for the last 3½ years and in view of the large amounts spent during the installation ceremony and - other expenditure to be incurred for equipment for His Holiness' tour, it is not possible just now to buy an animal at a heavy cost.

I therefore respectfully beg to request that two two elephants of medium size out of the animals captured during the recent Khedda operations, and two camels may be graciously ordered to be given free of cost for the Balehonnur Mutt. I am desirous to assure your Honour that every care will be taken for the proper feed and keep of the animals.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Respectfully.
